College Credit Plus - Textbook Purchasing Policy

The Ohio College Credit Plus law states that your school district is responsible for providing instructional tools, such as textbooks, for its CCP students. All Belmont or Harrison Career Center students taking college credit plus courses on campus or online at Belmont College must contact the Belmont College Campus Shop for current textbook ISBN numbers or access the eCampus website at <https://belmontcollege.ecampus.com>. The textbooks will be made available to students by the teacher on the first day of class.

Physical textbooks are considered property of the Belmont-Harrison Vocational School District. Belmont College retains the prerogative to procure books in the format it deems most suitable, whether digital or physical. All physical textbooks are to be returned to the Belmont or Harrison Career Center school counselor upon completion of the coursework. The district reserves the right to charge students for unreturned books.

I, (Parent/Guardian and Student), acknowledge by my signature below that I have read and understood the district's college textbooks purchasing policy.
